

10 Best reasons to visit Zambia

1. Home of Victoria Falls: The perfect view of the world's largest and most beautiful waterfall. Victoria Falls is known locally as Mosi-oa-Tunya or 'the smoke that thunders'.
2. Proximity to all other countries: Zambia is easily accessed by air from all parts of the world and has an excellent network of regional airlines, railroad routes and road links.
3. Africa's best kept secret: Luangwa Valley. South Luangwa is one of the greatest wildlife sanctuaries in the world. The concentration of game around the Luangwa River and its ox-bow lagoons is one of the most spectacular in Africa.
4. Kafue National Park: This is the largest game reserve in Africa and offers viewing of the major species of the continent.
5. Home of adventure: Zambezi River – as one of the greatest waterways on the African continent, this river attracts adventurous spirits to explore its lengths or challenge its rapids.
6. Bird watchers' paradise: Lochinvar National Park – although one of the smallest national parks, Lochinvar has over 400 known species of birds, as well as other wildlife.
7. The anglers' delight: Lakes Kariba and Tanganyika offer excellent sport fishing.
8. Cultural heritage – there are seven major ethnic groups within the country comprising 25 distinct tribes with their own rituals and 73 dialects. Cultural ceremonies are held every month – to be part of one is to experience the real Africa.
9. Historically interesting sites: Museums preserve the long tradition of tribal artifacts and famous moments from more recent times are remembered at the Livingstone Monument, Moto Moto Museum in Mbala, Nayuma Museum in Mongu and the Railway Museum in the town of Livingstone.
10. Climate: Because of its height above sea level, Zambia, nicknamed “ the air-conditioned state”, has a pleasant climate for a tropical African nation
